May is Older Americans Month

Established in 1963, Older Americans Month (OAM) is celebrated nationwide in May. This year's theme: Powered by Connection focuses on the profound impact that meaningful connections have on the well-being and health of older adults. Susan Pinker's Ted Talk The Secret to Living Longer underscores how social connection leads to a longer life. Canoe Brook is committed to offering services and programs that help you connect, learn, explore, remain independent, & age successfully. Check out our special OAM programs:
