Public Services Committee Meeting

Minutes

October 1, 2020

The Public Services Committee of the Branford Representative Town Meeting met remotely per Governor Lamont's Executive order 7B in regular session on Thursday, October 1, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.

To consider, and if appropriate, act upon a citizen's correspondence in regard to signs.

The meeting was called to order at 7:03 p.m. In attendance were committee members Representatives Riccio, Brockett, Stepanek, Torelli, Hakun and Conklin. Other RTM members in attendance were Representatives Twohill, Ingraham and Sires. Other town elected officials in attendance were Selectman Dunbar and First Selectman Cosgrove. Concerned citizens who attended included the letter creator, Wayne Cooke in addition to Todd Petrowski, Michael Perrico, Mark Zarotsky and a few other unidentifiable attendees.

Mr. Cooke was given the floor and made a fifteen-minute power point presentation using screen share. After a few questions and statements from others in attendance Representative Riccio moved that the committee vote to take no action. No second was achieved. The chair declared the motion void. The committee took no action and the meeting was adjourned at 7:46 p.m.

Respectfully,
Don Conklin, Chair
