

Rules and Ordinance met on Tuesday, April 20th 2021 starting at 7pm ending at 8:43pm

Roll Call - Chairman Peter Black with Representatives Dan Adelman, Chris Sullivan, Ray Ingraham, Peter Hentschel and Tricia Anderson all present. David Wells was absent.

Item number 1.

Budget items for discussion: Building Inspection and Enforcement, Conservation and Environment, Economic Development, Inland Wetlands and Natural Resources, Planning and Zoning, Water Pollution Control Authority and Zoning Board of Appeals were all heard.

A motion to approve was offered by Representative Hentschel with a second by Representative Anderson. The Budgets as presented passed unanimously in committee.

Note on the agenda: Shellfish Commission is self funding with no budget offered to discuss.

Item number 2.

To Review and consider, recommending appropriate action, if any, to the full RTM regarding revision to the Code of Ethics.

A motion to Re-Refer was offered by Representative Ingraham and second by Representative Hentschel and passed unanimously for further discussion at committee.

Item number 3.

To review and consider adoption of an ordinance creating time limits for capital fund expenditures.

A motion to Re-Refer was offered by Representative Ingraham and second by Representative Sullivan and passed unanimously for further discussion at committee.

Item number 4.

To review and consider repeal of ordinance on piggeries.

A motion to Take No Action to leave the ordinance as it stands was offered by Representative Sullivan and second by Representative Hentschel and passed unanimously in committee. The ordinance stands as is with no further action.

Item number 5.

Update on blight ordinance.

A motion to Re-refer to a special meeting was offered by Representative Sullivan and Second by Representative Ingraham.

A special meeting to discuss the blight ordinance will take place Thursday, May 13, 2021 time TBD zoom coordinates TBD.

Item number 6.

No new business has been added