Aerobics taught by certified instructor Laura Richling, classes are designed specifically for seniors. Laura helps an energetic group stay fit. All fitness levels are welcome to join the class M&W at 8:10 a.m.

Pickleball for beginners is a paddleboard sport combining elements of badminton, tennis & ping pong. A paddle is used to hit a perforated ball over the net. Meets Mondays at 1:00 p.m. with volunteer instructor Peter Graves.

QiGong is a mind-body-spirit practice that improves one's mental & physical health by integrating posture, movement, breathing techniques & more! Meets on Monday at 9:15 a.m. with volunteer instructor Alanna Keating

Yoga: Beginner, advanced, intermediate and new beginner yoga classes are offered Tues. & Thur. mornings. Led by certified instructor Lynda Knox our classes are designed for seniors to promote healthy aging and increased flexibility. Class size is limited to ensure that the needs of all participants are addressed. Currently there is a small waiting list for all levels. Beg: Tue 9am, Adv: Tue 10am, Intermediate: Thu 9am, New Beg: Thu 10am

Tabletop Shuffleboard is a game where players push metal weighted pucks down a long smooth wooden table into a scoring area at the opposite end of the table. Join volunteer Toni Cartisano Tuesdays at 10 a.m.

Tai chi, an ancient form of Chinese exercise originated in the 12th Century, focuses on slow fluid movements. Tai chi teaches balance with proper breathing and promotes health and well-being. Beginner: Tue 2:30 p.m. and Advanced: Thu 2:30 p.m. Both classes are taught by Suzanne Hanley.

Walking Indoors with Nancy to improve your health & boost your spirits. Thursdays at 9:00 a.m. starting 1/9

Chair Tai Chi is taught by volunteer Alanna Keating on Friday at 10:00 a.m. Improve your strength, balance, health, mobility & flexibility while sitting in a chair.

Tap Dancing with Mardyann Goglia is a moving experience! Learn the time step, shuffle, brush, grapevine, Suzy Q and more! The first part of the class is spent on learning the steps & then Mardyann puts the steps to music for the students to learn a choreographed routine. Tap shoes must be worn to class. Fridays at 10 a.m.

Cardio Fun is a great change of pace from other workout routines that is set to good music and easy movements. Class is on Fridays at 8:10 a.m.
